

RCSI

INTRODUCING NEW STAFF MEMBERS: Ali-Rose Sisk

Name /RCSI appointment	We are pleased to welcome Ali-Rose Sisk to RCSI Bahrain as a lecturer in nursing.
Educational background	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• BSc Nursing (HONS), University College Cork, 2013-2017• MSc Research, University College Cork, 2018-2019• PhD Psychiatry, University College London, 2019- 2022
Summary of Career to date.	Ali-Rose began her undergraduate nursing degree at the University College Cork in 2013. Shortly after registering as a general nurse, Ali-Rose completed her master's by research where she co-designed a dementia communication intervention for undergraduate nursing students. In 2019 Ali-Rose began her PhD at the Marie Curie Palliative Care Research Department, University College London. Here, Ali-Rose's research focused on exploring the palliative care needs of people with young-onset dementia.
Research interests and specialty	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Dementia care2. Palliative care3. Neurosurgery4. Neurology5. Innovation and enterprise6. Entrepreneurship
Major accomplishments	Ali-Rose is the former founder and director of startup company 'SafeCare Nursing Softwares'. SafeCare raised international funding and Ali-Rose was awarded an Irish businesswoman of the year award and shortlisted for Ireland Best Young Entrepreneur. Ali-Rose has a keen interest in sport and holds a world championship title and world record for powerlifting. For this, Ali-Rose was awarded Sports Person of the Year (2017) at the University College Cork.