

RCSI

Name:	Sumaya Faraj
Title:	Lecturer
Start date with RCSI Bahrain:	4/5/2011
Department:	School of nursing and midwifery
Specialty:	Medical surgical

Third Level Education / Academic Awards:

Date Awarded	Awarding Institution:	Qualification Title:
11/ 2016	RCSI	Post graduate diploma in health education
9/1/2008	Glasgow Caledonian University	Master in Nursing Sciences
2000	College of Health sciences	Bachelor degree in nursing

Professional Qualifications:

Date Awarded	Awarding Institution:	Qualification Title:
August 16	RCSI	Attended a workshop on Clinical simulation CAE Health Care Academy International RCSI-Bahrain
2011	Tamkeen	Attend a workshop on Introduction to training Design and Curriculum Development Tamkeen- Itcan
2007	CHS- University of Bahrain	Counselling

Previous Academic Positions:

Date (To - From):	Institution:	Position:
2000 To 2011	College of Health Sciences	Nursing lecturer

RCSI

Teaching Experience:

I have been teaching in Nursing education for the last 16 years. I have a coordinated and taught in different degrees such as associated degree in nursing, post basic cardiac program and bachelor degree in nursing.

Current Research and Scholarly Activities:

A descriptive study to explore the clinical area as a teaching and learning environment.

Summary of Publication History: (Last 10 years only)

Publication Details:

Journal Impact Factor:

Nurse's Care Practice at the End of Life in Intensive Care Units in Bahrain, Nursing Ethics, 2016	1.469
---	-------

Recent Presentations:

Nurse's Care Practice at the End of Life in Intensive Care Units in Bahrain. Scientific Day- Ministry of Health 2016
Presented a poster on Death Avoidance Talk: Nurses' care practices at end of life in two ICU s in Bahrain: a grounded theory approach Scientific Day – RCSI Bahrain 2014

Consultancy and other Relevant Activities:

Coordinate the clinical tutors and clinical Mentors workshop.