

RCSI ROYAL COLLEGE
OF SURGEONS
IN IRELAND

THE MILLIN LECTURE 2022

Description

The 44th Millin Lecture will take place in the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland in February 2022.

The opportunity to deliver this prestigious lecture is open to all the surgical specialties. The opportunity is open to candidates who are either Members or Fellows of the College in good standing, for the lectureship. Usually, the successful applicant will be well advanced in his/her surgical training or in their first five years in consultant practice.

The Millin Lecture recognises excellence in original research in surgery.

Preference will be given to candidates whose surgical research has been carried out wholly or in part in Ireland. The chosen theme shall be of clinical interest embodying original research, comprising a substantial body of work and be suitable for presentation as a formal lecture.

The Lecturer will receive an honorarium of €650 and the Millin Medal.

Application Procedures

Candidates are requested to submit their application as follows:

1. Please submit one copy of the following electronically:
 - a) Completed application form here together with the completed signature sheet here.
 - b) Summary of the work which the candidate proposes to submit.
 - c) Curriculum vitae including a full list of authors of publications claimed jointly by the candidate.
2. Application form must be signed by two Fellows of the College, in good standing.
3. Completed application (a) and supporting documents (b) and (c) should be submitted to the Office of the Managing Director of Surgical Affairs, (for the attention of Ms S Henson), email: samanthahenson1@rcsi.ie.
4. Applications must be received before 5.00 pm on Friday 30 June 2021.